

SAUGEEN HOME BUILDERS TRADE ASSOCIATION

CODE OF ETHICS

- Members shall comply with the National Building Code of Canada as a minimum standard for construction and shall work towards its improvement in the interest of structural sufficiency, safety and health.
- Members shall plan their sites and homes to conform to the principles of good community planning.
- Members shall deal justly with their employees, sub-contractors and suppliers.
- Members shall deal fairly and honestly with their customers.
- Members shall co-operate to extend the effectiveness of the Association by interchanging information and experience and encouraging research on materials and techniques in order to provide better homes at lower costs.
- Members shall uphold the principle of appropriate and adequate compensation for the services which they render.
- Members shall avoid all conduct or practice likely to discredit or do injury to the residential construction industry.
- Members shall commit to continuing learning through human resource policies and practices, including employment practices that treat employees as assets.
- Members shall actively promote health and safety principles and legislation.
- Members shall treat their competitors, including their property and ideas, with respect.

These responsibilities are freely and solemnly assumed as they form part of an obligation as Members of the Canadian Home Builder' Association.
